Defined time limits in this Article may be extended by a written agreement between the parties. However, should either party to the Agreement breach the time limitation, that party shall forfeit all rights and claims to the grievance and the grievance shall be considered resolved in the other party's favor; it being understood that such forfeiture does not decide the merits or establish a precedent. For the purpose of this Article, "working days" shall mean Monday through Friday, normal EMPLOYER business days.

If a hearing is not requested at the time the grievance is submitted by the grievant or required by the EMPLOYER, the grievance may be answered in writing without a hearing at Step 1.

Step 2. If the grievant Employee is not satisfied with the solution of the immediate supervisor, the Employee shall submit written notice to the General Manager and a copy to the UNION including, (1) statement of the grievance and relevant facts, (2) specific provision(s) of the Agreement violated, and (3) remedy sought, within ten (10) working days from the receipt of the immediate supervisor's response. The General Manager shall schedule a hearing if requested by the Employee and respond to the Employee in writing within ten (10) working days from receipt of the grievance at the second step.

Step 3. If no agreement can be reached at Step 2, the Union Business Representative/designee may appeal to arbitration by notifying the General Manager in writing. Such referral must be sent by certified mail within sixty (60) days after the Union receives the Step 2 decision. The arbitrator shall render a decision within 30 calendar days from the date of the formal hearing. The power of the arbitrator shall be limited to interpreting this Agreement and determining if the disputed Article or portion thereof has been violated. The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter, modify, vacate, or amend any terms of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator within these stated limits shall be final and binding on both parties.
- D. In case of a grievance involving any continuing or other monetary claim against the EMPLOYER, no award shall be made by the arbitrator which shall allow any alleged accruals for more than 10 working days prior to the date when such grievance shall have first been presented.

However, each party shall be completely responsible for all costs of preparing and presenting its own case, including compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a record of the proceedings, it shall solely bear the cost of such record.
- F. The parties agree to attend a pre-arbitration conference no later than 14 calendar days before a scheduled arbitration. The purpose of this conference shall be to discuss and narrow issues, explore settlement, prepare
